

MORASHIA

* * *
להתראות!

volume xiii , number 8
August 22, 1986
פרשת עקב

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Z'MAN WINS COLOR WAR BY SEVEN POINTS

By an amazingly slim margin of seven points, the Red Team- Z'man won Morashia '86 in what was rated one of the best color wars in Morasha history.

Led by Generals Barry Sklar and Beth Sirota, Lieutenant Generals Ronnie Morris and Meira Shulman, Captains Lawrence Burian and Miriam Kwalwasser, and Lieutenants Hillel Scheinfeld and Shoshana Twersky, the team's success came about through combined abilities in all types of activities.

Coordinating Committee Chairman, Rabbi Tully Besser, in closing ceremonies, marvelled at the camaraderie among all the teams and their leaders and the fantastic results of their endeavors.

Blue Team Generals Alan Sorscher and Rachel Landau and Lieutenant Generals Eli Sanders and Rebecca Teicher and White Team's Yossie Hecht and Phyllis Witkin and David Dessau and Karen Zomick as well as all campers were lauded for outstanding and middah-filled performance.

Wednesday's finale also included special performances by the infamous Black Team of Shoftim-Shotrim and the loveable Day Campers.

Everyone in Morasha- Administration, Staff, and Campers was a winner just to have participated in Morashia '86.

* * * *

FOUND - A LARGE SUM OF MONEY.
PLEASE CONTACT MOSHE ORLIAN

* * * * *

WINDING DOWN.....

Fri. Nite: Speaker: Rabbi Benjamin Blech,
"Israel Is Not Perfect: So What?"
10:15, Pargod

Motzai Shabbat: The Best of Morasha- Highlights of the Past Five Years in Song and Dance

Motzai Shabbat: Staff Saturday Night Live

Monday, 10:30 A.M.....L'HITRAOT

M * A * S * H TO BE DRAMATICS FINALE

M*A*S*H, adapted from the movie and directed by Ricki Zibitt, will be the finale of this year's dramatic productions. Set for Sunday night in the Mercazia, the play will be presented by the Morasha staff.

An ensemble production, the comedy will star Mark Hyman, David Zimbalist, Phyllis Witkin, Jonathan Stochel, Aryen Weiner, Mark Klein, Bonnie Soskin, Terry Simckes, Dara Kanevsky, Michal Chesir, and Maier Nordlicht.

Also Moshe Wertenteil, Eli Sanders, Zisi Rappaport, Atara Mednick, Lee Loewenstein, Eve Loewenstein, Miriam Simpson, Sheri Kinek, and Yitz Motechin.

Props and sets are by Chaim Zeitz and Jeff Cohen who will master sound, lighting, and special effects.

* * * * *

"CHES AID" ADDED TO COLORWAR COMPETITION PRACTICAL PROGRAMS RECOMMENDED

As an innovation in this year's Color War, "Ches-Aid" competition was instituted. Each team submitted two ideas for practical chesed projects which their community could offer.

The first place entry, submitted by Aviva Fried and Aliza Katz of Z'man, suggested instituting a "Jewish Nollidy Hotline." In this service a hotline would be made available to call for information concerning halacha about specific holidays.

Other ideas were (White Team) a letter writing campaign to children in Russia to let them know we are trying to free them and a (Blue Team) "self agricultural improvement plan" in which American children would sell Jaffa oranges and flowers imported from Israel and send the profits back to Israel for agricultural needs. "This will beautify the K'dushah of Eretz Yisroel to make it look like Gan Eden," suggested Yaakov Ottensosser, B 14

* * * * *

NITZAN IM PRESENT "MY ROBOT BUDDY"

Thirty-plus Nitzis staged "My Robot Buddy" last night in the Mercazia directed by Richie Saffron, Nicole Schreiber, and Rebecca Teicher. Ricki Zibitt, Dramatics Head, supervised.

TORAH THOUGHTS

A D'VAR TORAH ON

OUR FACULTY WRITES ON....

PARSHAT EKEV

By Danny Mann, Y.P. Kollel

Throughout the Torah there are countless lessons we can learn about the proper behavior and attitudes we should have. Both fortunately, most of the lessons can be uncovered only if we search for them, with the help of Chazal and various commentaries.

In Sefer Dvarim, Moshe presents B'nei Yisrael with his final instructions and offers them straightforward musar. We can understand Moshe's inspiring words if we pay close attention to the reading of the Torah in shul or read an English translation. It is very important to take advantage of this opportunity. Of course, closer investigation will uncover additional insight.

This week's parsha contains a message especially significant for us at the end of the camp season. In Perek 8 Moshe warns B'nei Yisrael about the dangers of becoming so used to luxuries that they stop appreciating how fortunate they are. This would cause them to forget that Hashem's kindness is the source of their good fortune and ultimately lead them to sin.

We should learn from Moshe's warning and appreciate what Hashem has done for all of us. But we should also be thankful to His messengers whom we are likely to overlook. In camp there are many people who provide us with the good that Hashem has prescribed. Before we leave camp we should think about all the people who helped us and thank our counselors, sheurim teachers, waiters, division head, etc. for making our summer enjoyable and meaningful. We could even thank our bunkmates (or co-workers, as the case may be) for doing us favors and putting up with us.

This is also the time to remember and thank those who take care of us all year long. We owe a great deal to our parents who provide us with all of our needs, from food and clothing to sending us to Morasha and everything in between. After being away for the summer, it may be a little easier to notice what we took for granted during the year. When we consider how fortunate we are and how much we owe to Hashem and people, we'll be better Jews and happier people.

PARSHAT EKEV

By Rabbi Daniel Rhein
Educational Director

In this week's Parsha of Ekev, Moshe speaks to B'nei Yisroel and encourages them saying: If B'nei Yisroel will listen to these laws and mitzvot, then Hashem will fulfill his promises to our Avot. We will have everything good and will have no need to fear the nations around us. If you'll wonder how can we inherit the powerful nations, don't worry. Hashem has already showed us his might and greatness during Metzilat Mitzrayim and will do so again.

This theme of "Keeping the commitment" has been dramatically demonstrated to us again and again. But in return Hashem asks us to keep his mitzvot. Rashi says this refers to the "simple" ones that people who aren't sensitive would ignore.

We have so many opportunities to do easy mitzvot daily- be it B'rochos, Tzitzit, Tzedakah, Talmud Torah, Kibud Av V'Aim, or Ahavat Chaverim. If we are diligent in observing these easy mitzvot, Hashem's promises will be fulfilled.

As camp draws to a close, let's continue doing the good things we did daily in camp. Remember that the summer is the time to prepare ourselves for the rest of the year.

* * * *

D'VAR TORAH ON PARSHAT EKEV

By Yosef Nussbacher, Machon

Through the doing of Mitzvot Kalot, we show that we are devoting all of our time to the doing of Hashem's will. If we can all observe and attach the appropriate importance to the doing of mitzvot kalot, hopefully we will be zocheh to see the kiyum of the second half of the posuk, "U'shmor Hashem Elokechah l'chah et habrit" Bimhayrah b'yamenu. -----Team Tevah

MORASHA

COLORWAR BREAKOUT

By Tzipi Wasserman, Ilanot, Blue

Everyone suspected that it was a color-war breakout, but no one knew for sure. The whole camp was squished into the Mercazia waiting for the 'Harlem Wizards' to appear. After an hour of waiting, they finally arrived.

First they showed us some of their tricks. After a few minutes of entertainment, Text, the 'Wizard', showed the Morasha Team how to play the game.

Machzor Aleph was supposed to leave after half-time, but Stretch and Mark put up a fight with Zush and the Nitzis and Shtilis got to stay for "Only a little while longer."

The Wizards, with a wide lead, decided that they were bored of basketball, and they started to play baseball. After a hard game of baseball, two of the wizards started fighting over a drink of water. A cup of water was thrown into the bleachers, and the rest of the wizards marched out with red, white, and blue balloons.

The generals were called up by Tova and Zush and they were given their hats.

When everyone was back in their bunks, they were given their booklets and hats.

* * * *

THE BLUE TEAM THEME

By Sharon Fischer, Machon

The theme of our team Tevah is the holiness in nature. It is our obligation in life to make nature holy. Therefore, daily occurrences such as wasting food and ruining nature are prohibited. Through observing these prohibitions as well as other related Mitzvot such as Shmita and Yovel we prove our awareness that G-d created the world.

Holiness in nature, time, and the human being is what makes the Jew a special and unique person. Hopefully, the time will come when every Jew embodies holiness and fulfills his ultimate purpose.

NEVER EMBARASS PEOPLE

By Yossie Oratz, Nitzanim, White

Let's say the white team plays the blue team, and white wins. The white team shouldn't say that the blue team is not good at sports. Like if a person makes a party and invites this man and he doesn't come and by accident this other man comes, he shouldn't throw him out like Kamtza and Bar Kamtza when BarKamtza made a party and by accident Kamtza came.

Bar Kamtza said to his servants, "Who is that man? Go over to him and ask him to leave."

"Please let me stay. I'll pay for the party."

"You have to go."

"Please let me stay."

The guard threw out Kamtza. So Kamtza went to Rome. Then he said to the emperor, "The Jews hate you."

"I don't believe it," said the emperor.

"So send a sacrifice, and you'll see they won't take it."

The emperor sent a sheep to the Jews. Secretly Kamtza took out a knife and scraped the sheep. The Jews sent back the animal. The emperor started war. It shows never to embarrass people.

* * * *

DIVAR TORAH ON PARSHAT EKEV

By Meredith Deutsch, Shtilim, Red

It says in Parshat Ekev, "Ki Tomar Bilvovecha" Why does it say "Ki", "If"? Rashi answers, maybe you will say in your heart, because they are so large you will not be able to dispose of your enemies. Don't say that.

Rashi continues by saying that in the next posuk, it says "Lo Tirah Mikem". Do not be afraid of them. It says this as if to answer the posuk before. Don't say we will not be able to dispose of them. Just believe in Hashem and there is nothing to fear from your enemies.

* * * *

IT DOESN'T MATTER

If you are not on the same team as your best friend, it doesn't matter.....T.Wadler, Red N.

MORASHA

YOU WIN - EVEN IF YOU LOSE

By Randi Sorscher, Shtili, White Team

'We shall not be beat ! ! We shall not be beat! !'

During a colorwar period, cheers like this are often heard. But, there really is no meaning to it. These words are just a prediction that probably won't even come true.

During Colorwar it is especially important to be careful of what you say and also to have good sportsmanship. You cheer, work your hardest, and do your best, but whether you win or not doesn't matter. Sure, everyone wants to win- but not everybody can. If you lose, it's not the end of the world. It's just a little competition - and a little competition once in a while is good. Colorwar is for fun- not to decide who's the best!

If you have good sportsmanship and really try hard, and you lose- you really won- just in a different way.

* * * * *

THE MEANING OF TEVAH

By Avraham Willig, Shtilim

Our team Tevah means nature, and nature means flowers, trees, grass, the sky, the whole world Hashem created and humans, too. We have to remember not to ignore the fact that Hashem runs the world, makes it rain and makes the trees grow and even the fact that we are breathing is all the doing of Hashem. This is nature.

Now, this is Color War, 1986, and Baruch Hashem we are all alive and well and "Mother Nature" says that Tevah wins, and we are going all the way.

* * * * *

COLORWAR DITTY

During this week, we will reach our peak of fun and competition galore.

'Guz from now 'till the end, having fun we will spend, competing in Color War.

By Jonathan Grynspan, Ilanot, Red

IT'S TIME FOR COLOR WAR !

By Batsheva Brandstatter & Stephanie Gluck, Ilanot, Red Team

Sunday night, August 17, Nitzanim through Ohed had the privilege of seeing the Harlem Wizards perform. The Harlem Wizards, besides entertaining us with tricks, participated in a basketball game against Morasha's Staff Team. The activity was exciting and everyone had a great time. But before it was all over, the Harlem Wizards had the privilege of breaking out color war for Camp Morasha. There were three teams, Tevah which was the color Blue, Adam which was White, and the last, but definitely not least, Z'man which was RED.

Our team, Z'man, represents K'dushat Z'man, the holiness of time. Shabbat and other holidays are examples of Kedushat Z'man because of the specific times in which they occur. These are examples of time that we have no control over, they come whether we are ready or not and we have certain mitzvot which we are obligated to do in this time.

A second form of time is our leisure time. This is a time where mitzvot do not have a set time. So we must take it upon ourselves to do mitzvot. Here is where B'nei Yisrael must improve in order for Moshiach to come and to regain the Beit Hamikdash. The bottom line is to make our leisure time Kodosh instead of wasting it.

* * * * *

A LITTLE ON COLOR WAR

By Cara Rochwarger, Dana Lichtman, Efrath Berman, Nitzanim, White Team

We like Color War. We make a lot of new friends from other teams. We are having a lot of fun. A lot of Nitzanim are here for the first time.

The games that we are playing well is Kickball. We like our general and lieutenant general. We get a lot of points most of the day.

We hope our team wins.

SUMMER UP

FIRSTS IN THE SUMMER OF '86

- * Very meaningful serious Tisha B'Av program conducted by/for staff in shevua sh'chal bo.
- * Morashia Generals named on the spot with no prior consultation with them.
- * Baby girl receives her name in Morasha's Pargod Shui -- Naava Rena Billet.
- * Kolliel conducted its own Marathon in the rain when Malinsky Marathon was cancelled. Steven Epstein won.

* * * * *

ANOTHER VOLUME OF SHALHEVET COMPLETED

With this issue another volume of SHALHEVET is complete. The summer's been wet, but the Ruach at Morasha never dampens. Success prevails at Morasha no matter what obstacles, including the weather, need to be overcome. Yeyasher Koach to Camp Director Zvi Reich, the captain of our ship, and to the entire crew for keeping us sailing with flying colors.

SHALHEVET extends a special thank you to the camp director for always accommodating, to Mrs. Reich for expert technical assistance, to Rabbi Wahrhaftig for all of his help, to Shirley Storch for sharing her office; to Eve Loewenstein for her diligence and care in production; to Ahuva Epstein for the Amud Ivri, to Laura Soskin for weekly headlines, to Faygle Willig for the covers, to Rabbi Klein for ed department info, to Jeff Kohn, Gayriel Shapiro, Sharon Fischer, and Seth Gordon of Machon for their assistance, and most of all to our readers -- very best wishes for a Lishana Tova to all.

R.S.

* * * * *

WHAT DID MACHON COUNSELORS DO THIS SUMMER?

Michal Lemberger, G 19: I don't know, but I'd like to do it.

Jeff Kohn, Machon: Break a leg.
Jonathan Appel, Machon: Work very hard
Rabbi Kerner: Spend much time learning

A LETTER FROM THE DIRECTORS

Dear Campers and Staff,

As we approach our final Shabbat together we would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for a memorable summer. You campers represent the finest example of what everyone looks for in a wholesome genuine child. We can be proud of you and look to the future of the Jewish community with optimism. To the staff we say Yeyasher Kochachem for your efforts on behalf of the campers and their parents. You symbolize excellence in Jewish leadership and we take pride in having selected you. Thank you all for this wonderful summer!

K'tivah v'chatimah tova v'shanah tova.

Sincerely,

Zvi Reich
Director

Mady Gesser Abe Wahrhaftig
Program Director Ass't. Director

* * * * *

HAZEL TOV TO ALL OF THE OUTSTANDING STUDENTS WHO HAVE RECEIVED AWARDS FOR TORAH ACHIEVEMENT IN MORASHA.

* * * * *

INTERBUNK WINNERS

Congratulations to the winners of Interbunk Contest Number 7: The YP Kolliel, the Office Staff and Moshe O., G 11, Noam and Ari Wasserman, and ShanaChaya Auman, Ilana Hochen, and Tamar Popper of Shtetl.

That makes the YP KOLLEL the season's champions with a score of 7 out of 7. Second place winners were the Office Staff and Moshe with a 5 out of 7 record.

* * * * *

WHAT A BLUE HEADBAND MEANS TO ME

"The Business". It is not just a symbol of my burning desire to join the elite cadre known as sports staff, but it is my raison d'être.

.....Michael Maskas as told to Jeff Kohn and Shukie Grossman

ROVING REPORTER

QUESTION: IF YOU COULD TAKE ONE THING HOME FROM MORASHA, WHAT WOULD IT BE ???

ANSWERS:

- | | |
|---|---|
| Michael Glass, B 18: Peretz's car | Dr. Jeff Jacobson: The baker |
| David Zimbalist, JC, B 13: A waiter | Karen Ackerman, G 17: My best friend |
| David Teichman, B 18: The Ed Staff | G 17: All our friends |
| Ariel Lowe, B 10: Sudafed from the Infirmary | Zush Motochin, HC: Spirit |
| Donni Bendheim, B 17: My clothing | Michael Raskas, Machon: A blue headband for business |
| Shmullie Pineles, B 11: Reese's garbage truck | Ari Berman, Machon: The Kolliel |
| Moshe Eisen, B 11: A golf cart | Izzy Botnick, Music Staff: Black Team hats for my 17 brothers and sisters |
| Barry Sklar, SC, B 11: POW's | Shai Schmelzer, YP Kolliel: Simcha Willig |
| Zahava Weitzchner, G 12: The infirmary | Ira Olshin, SC 7: My sanity |
| Adam Orlow, B 10: Zush | Jason Loewenstein, B 16: Chaim Hagler |
| Machon Boys: Rabbi Berman | Yehuda Willig, B 1: Ariel Gralla |
| Larry Rosenblatt, Ohed: A copy of SHALHEVET | Jonathan Cohen, B 6: All the trophies |
| Donny Greenblat, Machon: DJ's | Josh Kruger, B 12: My counselor |
| Julian Borowich, G11: My brother | Danny Gibber, B 10: The bugel tape |
| Moshe Orlian, Sports: Noam Rhein | Harry Enker, B 12: Zush's cowboy hat |
| Robert Appel, B 13: Hillel Olshin | Elliot Cohen, B 19: Tully Besser |
| Hillel Olshin, B 10: Robert Appel | Howie Beigelman, B 9: The motorboat |
| Alan Sorscher, SC 8: Seforim from the library | J. Sudberg, S. Balsam, A. Froelich, B 13: The Bondis |
| Steve Siegel, YP Kolliel: Alan Sorscher's seforim | |
| Alufim: Alufot | David Ruditzky, B 15: The VCR |
| Fearsome Seven: BFK | Hillel Zinkin, B 2: The sports shack |
| Charles Fagin, B4: Campers that live far away | B 8: Zvi Ozer's clothes |
| Rachel Flamholz, Infirmary Aide: A bigger salary | Josh Freundlich, B 2: The woodshop |
| Joel Segal, B 7: Rabbi Rhein | Adam Melzer, B 14: All the food in the canteen |
| | Matthew Rovner, B 2: The lake |