

THE SHALHEVET

CAMP MORASHA | SUMMER 2013/5773 | VOLUME NO. 50

VISITING DAY

Last Saturday night, the entire camp engaged in Clean Sweep in order to prepare ourselves for our visitors the next morning. Sunday was a beautiful day in Camp Morasha - sun and smiles were bright as we welcomed our friends and family to our home away from home. It was wonderful seeing one another, listening to a great concert from Shlock Rock, eating delicious food, and spending time with those we love!

COLOR WAR

Responsibility was taken - literally! We woke up to the Responsibility panel of the Value Mural missing! Following a beautiful camp-wide Havdallah for Shabbat Nachamu, the banner made its reappearance for use in our Color War Breakout ceremony! This year's teams are Green / Ha'Heim (Past) and White / Ha'Hu (Future). The amount of talent and teamwork exhibited throughout the duration of Color War was a beautiful sight to see! Even though Team Ha'Heim/Green won, congratulations to both teams for all their hard work, sportsmanship, and camaraderie!

As Changeover Day approaches, we here at Morasha would like to wish our departing campers and staff a wonderful year! We have had so much fun with you this first month and can't wait to welcome you back next year! Thank you to the departing Staff Members for all their hard work this summer! Having you as part of the Morasha Team has been wonderful!

Parshat HaShavuah

Parshat Eikev

By Rabbi Moshe Tzvi Weinberg,

Rosh Girls' BMP

You Can't Fight a "War" Without "Weapons"

The story is told (Sefer Chovos Ha'levavos) of a group of soldiers who encounter a saintly old man as they return triumphantly from the battlefield. With a most serious look on his face, he informs them that the battle is far from over and the next challenge awaits them. "Now that you have won the minor war, the time has come for each of you to prepare yourself for the true battle that lies ahead." Bewildered, they asked him for an explanation. The sagely fellow replied, "The true fight that every human being must endure is the struggle against our yetzer harah, our evil inclination. To win such a battle is to truly be a warrior."

In our parsha we are warned of the great danger of abandoning Torah. "Beware for yourselves, lest your heart be seduced and you will turn astray and you will serve other gods and prostrate yourselves to them" (11:16). Rashi comments, "Once a person parts from the Torah, he goes and attaches himself to idolatry." A scary thought, but is it really true? Don't chazal us otherwise? In Meseches Shabbos (105b) we are told that the yetzer harah can only bring one to the ultimate sin of avodah zarah in gradual steps. If so, why does Rashi present the descent into the world of idolatry as occurring so suddenly?

Rav Elchonan Wasserman shared a very brilliant answer from his rebbe, the Chofetz Chaim. Imagine two opposing forces battling over a significant period of time. Each strikes at his opponent and the balance of power shifts back and forth. Even if one army gains the upper hand, it is still possible for the opposing army to fight back and recover from the initial setback. However, if one army captures the other army's weapons, leaving them with no means of continuing the fight, it is clear that the war is over.

The Chofetz Chaim explained that the same is true in the "fight" against our evil inclination. Even if we sometimes surrender to our desires and fail to serve \aleph as we should, there is always the possibility of returning to a proper service of \aleph . Always, that is, as long as our most powerful "weapon" against the yetzer harah, the Torah, is still intact. "I [Hashem] created the yetzer harah and I have created the Torah as its antidote" (Gemara Kiddushin 30b). However, if the yetzer harah has prevailed in stopping us from studying Hashem's Torah, our means of self defense is lost as is the battle at hand.

As we emerge from a week of Color "War," some as victors and others unashamed for having given it their all, let us remind ourselves of this important idea in the life of Torah true Jews. Let us proudly carry and protect our precious "weapon," the Torah, from falling into enemy hands. After all, the "big battle" still lies ahead...

ROVING REPORTER

WITH JESSIE ALVARO

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION:

WHAT WAS YOUR FAVORITE PART OF COLOR WAR?

Rabbi Aryeh Yudin,
Assistant to the Director: Breakout!

Warehouse: Breaking down, setting up,
breaking down, setting
up, and breaking down the Mercazia.

Nomi Mermelstein,
Ductagami: Game On

Zevi Litwin, Nitzi
Counselor: Late night/early morning Shiria
practices and Shiria

Shifra Liebowitz, Spin
Instructor: Spelling
Bee

Eli Jarashow, B12:
Apache relay

Shalom Rosengarten,
B12: Shiria

Jessica Blilious,
Horseback Riding: All
the sports!

Max Cohen,
Lifeguard: Reverse
Videos

Who's Who in Camp Morasha:

An Interview with Camp's
Head of the Drama Department,
Rachel Stermann

HOW MANY YEARS HAVE YOU BEEN IN CAMP?

This is my third summer!

WHAT GOT YOU INTO DRAMA IN THE FIRST PLACE?

I've always loved acting and drama since I was a kid. My first play was the Wizard of Oz in 5th grade, where I was a Munchkin in the Lullaby League. I was then in a play every year, through high school.

WHAT HAS BEEN YOUR FAVORITE
ROLE TO PLAY?

Ursula from The Little Mermaid and Glinda from Wicked, from the scene
"Popular."

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE
MUSICAL?

Phantom of the Opera

WHAT DO YOU LOOK FOR WHEN
AUDITIONING THE CAMPERS FOR ROLES IN YOUR PRODUCTIONS?

There's a lot that goes into my decision making process!
Stage presence and confidence, but the truth is, I assign roles based on the kids' dedication and desire to be a part in the production.

WHAT IS YOUR ADVICE FOR PEOPLE WHO HAVE STAGE
FRIGHT?

When on stage, the audience isn't a group of individuals; rather, it is only one entity. Don't be afraid, you can't really see them because it's dark, which takes away from the pressure of performing to individuals. A good trick is to pick a spot above the audience's head and perform to that! Don't worry, you'll always do great!

THIS WEEKS WEATHER:

SHABBAT! (subject to change)
79 degrees, PM thunder storms,
40% chance of rain

SUNDAY
72 degrees, scattered thunder storms, 60% chance of rain

MONDAY
75 degrees, partly cloudy, 10%
chance of rain

TUESDAY
75 degrees, partly cloudy, 10%
chance of rain

WEDNESDAY
77 degrees, partly cloudy, 20%
chance of rain

THURSDAY
78 degrees, isolated thunder storms, 30% chance of rain

FRIDAY
79 degrees, partly cloudy, 10%
chance of rain

SHABBAT!
78 degrees, partly cloudy, 10%
chance of rain

YACHAD! This week has been unbelievably awesome! Starting with Color War Breakout that took us completely by surprise, the fun hasn't ended! It was great to see our family and friends on Sunday and show them around Camp. After they left we were excited to get right in to Color War. Congratulations to Camper Captains, Lauren Kreiser and Salar Askarinam! The 3 days were packed with competitive sports games, spelling bee, chidon, apache relay, cheers and songs! However, what was most impressive was everyone's good sportsmanship! Our motto was: "If you win- great!, If you lose, NBD (no big deal)" Thursday we were 'flyin' high' as we flew over Camp, going for amazing helicopter rides. Thank you to the sponsors of the event! We had an wonderful time! Looking forward to another incredible Shabbaton and another week of non stop fun! Shabbat Shalom!

DAY CAMP! It was another fantastic week in Day Camp! Our first annual Morasha Day Camp Marathon was a huge success! The press was out photographing the campers as they ran to raise money for Chai Lifeline. Make your Own pizza was another fun event. We are not sure whether the trip to Como Pizza, preparing our own lunch or eating it was our favorite part. Our counselors worked hard to run carnival booths, parents visited and helped us to play the games. The memories we have will stay with us forever. The most exciting part of the week though was our first ever Day Camp color war. Orange/Blue Shamayim and Orange/Black Aaretz worked hard playing, cheering and being "menschen" while respecting the other teammates. We performed our song "Hinei Lo Yanun" in front of the whole camp at Shiriah and were quite proud of our accomplishments. We are always winners in Day Camp!

TRIVIA QUESTION: How many cars do you think were parked on the Morasha campus, all at once, on Visiting Day?

News from Boys Campus...

NITZI'S The Nitzi boys started off the week so excited for Color War! Sunday was a beautiful sunny day and we got to spend time with our families, introduce them to our friends, counselors and division heads. It was so nice seeing our families and stocking up on lots of snacks and treats. The night's opening Color War festivities continued the fun. We enjoyed the "Game On" followed by 3 intense days of sports, learning, singing, races and so much more. Both teams had a great time! Back to our regular schedules on Thursday, we started playoffs for basketball and hockey leagues. We look forward to congratulating the champions next week. We will miss our friends who are going home on Monday and look forward to a meeting some new ones!

YOUNGER SHTILI'S This week started off with a lesson of "Responsibility," resulting in quite the Color War Breakout! As we anxiously awaited the teams and generals, our parents made a pit stop for Visiting Day, which was a day of great fun. Later that day, the generals and teams were announced for teams Ha'Heim and Ha'Hu. After a grueling 3 days of what was an unbelievable Color War, Green Ha'Heim came out victorious - but don't be fooled the white team was a very close second. Looking forward to the Morasha Cup this Saturday night - it should be great for the entire Camp, with a night filled with hockey, BBQ, and more! Have an amazing Shabbat from the Younger Shtili boys!

OLDER SHTILI'S It was a bit of a different week, but no less magical here in Morasha. It all began on Shabbat when many campers noticed that something quite large was missing in Camp. It was perhaps the biggest prank we had ever seen, as the Responsibility banner was stripped from the fence by the main road. Little did we know that this was all just a setup for the breakout of Color War 2013! The excitement in the air was palpable and carried into Visiting Day when we all had a blast seeing our parents, while enjoying the campus and the many activities that were set up. Immediately after the last families returned home, Color War began and the next 3 days went by in a flash of Green and White. What could be better than 3 days packed with team spirit, competition, talent, and lots of fun? At the end of the Grand Finale Wednesday night, Team emerged victorious. Things settled down on Thursday as we went back to our regular schedule and awesome league games, followed by a night pool party for just us Older Shtili boys. It was yet another amazing and crazy week here in Camp, for which I think we all deserve and relaxing and restful Shabbat. Shout out to "Jumpin" Jono Rosen!

ILANOT What a week for the Ilanot! Who would have guessed Color War would be first month?! An all out war between Green and White campers took place in Lakewood, PA. From sports, to painting, to ductagami, to singing and dancing, Ilanot gave it their all in this great battle. Even though Green triumphed, both teams danced the night away at Morasha's 50th Morashia celebration. Ilanot visited the Canteen Thursday night for great food and a good chill! After a long week and with Shabbat around the corner, I think a good rest is in order. Shout out to Yoni Sapadin. Shabbat Shalom!

MANHIGIM Color War broke out, following the shocking disappearance of the Responsibility banner! Everyone was totally surprised. Shabbat was nice while everyone was searching for the thief. Motzaei Shabbat was the actual Break Out where we had a very intense game of basketball in Game On. Color War was a lot of fun, and although it did rain, we were able to play every activity. Both teams put in a lot of effort. Congratulations to Green on their victory. Dodgeball with Lavi was fun, but we enjoyed Dispicable Me even more. Playoffs are officially started and can't wait for championships game and second months leagues. Have an awesome Shabbat Kodesh!

ALUFIM

The sign was stolen, who could it be Jim? Warehouse? The lifeguards? Shani?
Turns out it was just to break out the war!
Green and white are the colors, who needs more?
Ha'Hoo and Ha'Heim, our future and our past
Who would be first, who would be last?
Saturday night continued as Coco was laid to float
We sent him off on our bunk-made boat
Sam said a psalm, Noah a gave a speech
A lesson to all of us, Coco did teach
Sunday was a great day of visitation
At around 4:00 our parents left Morasha-nation
Color War continued with the Game-On event
White won by one point, to a great defeat green was sent
The week continued with so many games
Dodgeball, spelling bee, chidon and remember the names
There was brachos bee, musical chairs and apachee too
Lets not forget about swim-off or capture the shoe (flag)
Ultimate, volleyball and softball were played
Unbelievable Shelets and posters were made
In the end of the battle Ha'Heim won the fight
But it would be a war never forgotten between Green and White!

BOYS BMP The Boys BMP looks back at a productive and impactful first month this weekend, as many of our amazing members begin to head home. Chaburot went back to their normal schedule after Visiting Day Parking and Color War activities came to an end. The 9th man really came in clutch at the top of the 9th, Moreinu V'rabbeinu Shlit"a, and congrats to Boys Sports Staff for their last inning victory. We look forward to the Friday night tisches this week as we hope to hold our very first Machzor Bet "chaburatisch." A huge yashar koach to the guys for making the Parsha Packets and Torah 2 Go once again, and for continuing the Habitat for Humanity program this week. We enjoyed hosting Rabbi Aryeh Leibowitz from Shaalvim this week, and look forward to the Motzei Shabbat SNL from Rabbi Jesse Horn as well! Great job and good bye to the guys leaving this week, as the Boys BMP looks forward to an exciting second month at Camp Morasha!

News from Girls Campus...

NITZI'S As you can imagine, Visiting Day was so exciting for us Nitzi Girls. Not only were we happy to see our parents, there were so many things to do around Camp. Although we were sad to see our parents go, we were thrilled to jump directly into Color War. Who would have thought that we'd break out Color War before Visiting Day - what a brilliant idea! Color War for Nitzi Girls was awesome! We all worked hard to win for our respective teams, but there could only be one winner. We are so excited and proud of our friends on the Green Team who won! It is unbelievable to think that Changeover Day is this coming Monday. Although we have had so many extensions, we will miss our friends who are going home. We hope to see them next year. Shabbat Shalom!

YOUNGER SHTILI'S After an unexpected Color War Breakout in the Mercazia, the Younger Shtili's returned to their bunks to prepare for Visiting Day! Clean Sweep was a success and our bunks looked fabulous! It was great to see our family and friends on Visiting Day, even though it was bittersweet saying goodbye! But the sadness didn't last long, as we threw ourselves into Color War! Congratulations to our two Camper Captains, Mimi Leifer and Annabelle Muller! Shout out to the Green Team's YSG who produced such beautiful Shalhevet projects, and won for their team! These last three days have been so much fun! Congratulations to Team Green! Thursday night we got ready for our Shabbaton, cooking for Shabbat in the Baking Room! Our OSG Cookbook for Tzedakah is almost ready to go to print, so thanks to all who contributed to help make it a huge success! Shabbat Shalom!

OLDER SHTILI'S After a fantastic Clean Sweep and having some beautifully clean bunks, we got to see our family and friends for Visiting Day! This excitement, coupled with the energy that is Color War, could not make for more excited and happy Older Shtili Girls! These past three days of Color War have been jam packed with activities, teamwork, and so much fun together! Congratulations to our friends on the Green Team who emerged victorious! Happy birthday to Bella Ingber. Also, we enjoyed our first coed night activity - co-ed dodgeball, where the girl counselors served as the targets and the boy counselors were the DJs. It didn't matter who won cause we looked awesome in our new divisional sweatshirts! As we go into our last Shabbat together before Changeover Day, we want to take a moment to say goodbye to our friends and wish them an amazing year! We hope to see you next summer! Also, a special shout out to counselors Molly and Deena - thank you for all your hard work. We will miss you! Shabbat Shalom!

ILANOT What time is it? Game time! After the entire camp gathered for a meaningful havdallah to wave Shabbat Nachamu goodbye, Color War was broken out! Over Shabbat, the 'R' banner from our "Values Wall" was "stolen!" Boys Head Counselor, Rabbi Dave Friedman, announced that the person responsible for the missing banner had 30 seconds to confess their actions before the Camp, but in truth, Color War was at our finger tips. Before the teams, respective Generals, and Camper Captains were announced, we were sent back to our bunks to clean in anticipation for Visiting Day. The Ilanot counselors were thrilled to finally see where their crazy kids came from - and the parents explained it all ;)! In honor of Morasha's 50th birthday, green and white - the Morasha Colors - were competing to claim victory. Some of our supporters already know that after dressing in the Morashia spirit for Visiting Day. The Ilanot-ers have been cheering, painting, running, learning, and demonstrating their skills in the past 3 days and are most definitely enjoying themselves! Congratulations to the Green Team! And since we didn't do enough cheering and singing in Color War, we finished off the week with a super retro "Decades" themed Open Mic Night- Karaoke style! We had so much fun singing our hearts out with our high pony's and strobe lights. It was a great way to follow our dreams, as if our lives were a High School Musical. Stay tuned for more in Ilanot news! Shabbat Shalom!

MANHIGOT This past Shabbat saw a wonderful Gim/Got Yachad Shabbaton, davening together Friday night in the Pavillion and eating together in the Canteen. The ruach was great thanks to both the campers and the counselors! Shabbat morning, following davening together, there was a very special BMP program with Yachad. Who knew after our post Shalosh Seudot program, that our Camp-wide Shabbas Nachamu havdallah would turn into color war breakout? So exciting! There was an intense cleaning for Clean Sweep in preparation for Visiting Day. A great day was had by all, seeing our families and friends. After Visiting Day, we jumped right into Color War for a jam packed and super fun three days!

Congratulations to our friends on the Green Team! We got to have an amazing night activity from our friends from Lavi at Machzor Bet Madness! The teens our age from Lavi came to Morasha for a co-ed dodgeball tournament. Then, we got to see a midnight viewing of Despicable Me 2. It was so much fun! We hope everyone has a Shabbat Shalom!

ALUFOT After a fun filled Visiting Day with parents and friends, the Alufot were excited to get back to camp activities and jump right into Morashia 2013! Participating in sports activities, putting their creative and artistic minds together to design beautiful duct tape bimah covers, and arranging their incredible voices into beautiful harmonies, the Alufot were competitive members of their teams! After jam-packed days of Color War activities, the campers were ready for a more relaxing Thursday of regular sports and specialties. Thursday night was Machzor Bet Madness which began with a dodgeball game at Camp Lavi and ended with a late night viewing of Despicable Me 2! It was a busy week and everyone is looking forward to a relaxing Shabbat, followed by the Night At The Tony's!

GIRLS BMP This week the GBMP was filled with ruach, fun, and Color War involvement. We were divided into teams, but worked together to help out each team in the various projects, Torah related events, and shiriah. Even though we love Color War, and loved being involved, a real sense of "We miss being together in the BMP" was felt by everyone! We were lucky to hear Shiurim by Rabbi Aryeh Lebowitz from Shaalvim and many amazing Shiurim by Rav Moshe Tzvi Weinberg of course! We ended the week as RCs, going to a shiur by Rebbe at Neshet, and are looking forward to an amazing Shabbat here in the GBMP!

Morasha Loves to Swim!

The cool morning weather did not stop the Nitzanim and Younger Shtili Girls from having a fun and victorious swim meet against Shoshanim Thursday. We raced the front crawl, back stroke, breast stroke and butterfly. Then the Ilanot and Manhigot competed against Nesher and Shoshanim, and they too were triumphant. More importantly, everyone enjoyed themselves!

A special shout out to Nicole Zweiter for helping to make this a successful day!

Go Morasha!

MAZEL TOV!

A huge Mazel Tov to Tami Prus of the Morasha Front Office, on the Bris of her grandson and also on the engagement of her daughter!

THIS MOTZAEI SHABBAT IS JAM PACKED!

ON GIRL'S CAMPUS - "A NIGHT AT THE TONYS" 9:15pm Reception at the Canteen, followed by Performance in the Mercazia. Come Red Carpet Ready!

ON BOY'S CAMPUS - THE MO-RASHA CUP, Hockey tournament with Coach Mo Fuchs!

MITZVAH TIME: HASHAVAT AVAIDA

RETURNING LOST OBJECTS

TWO WONDERFUL GENTLEMEN IN CAMP, NOAH GUTTMAN OF B2 AND BEN TOCKER OF B6 FOUND AN UNDISCLOSED AMOUNT OF MONEY THAT WAS LOST. THEY WERE GRACIOUS ENOUGH TO TURN IT IN. IF YOU LOST MONEY THIS WEEK IN CAMP MORASHA, PLEASE SEE SHANI NORMAN TO DISCERN WHETHER IT IS YOURS.

THANK YOU!

FUN PAGE

RIDDLES

Suppose there is only one barber shop in your town, and it employs two barbers. One of the barbers has a nice, neatly trimmed head of hair. The other's hair is a complete mess. Which of the two barbers should you go to and why?

A magician is standing on a concrete floor holding a raw egg with his hand outstretched. Without the aid of any objects, he is able to drop the egg two feet without breaking it's shell. How does he do it?

There are two books sitting side by side, consisting of exactly 100 pages. The book on the left is upside down. If you add the page number at the extreme left side of the book on the left to the page number at the extreme right side the right hand book, what is the total?

SOMETHING THEY DIDN'T TEACH YOU IN SCHOOL...

What exactly is a "brain freeze?" Ice cream headaches can be explained by science: a "cold stimulus headache" is the response of the nervous system to the cold, causing blood vessels to constrict. However, when you breathe in, the comparatively warm air makes the vessels re-expand all within a short time.

FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW BY BOBBY DRATCH, GIRL'S ROCK CLIMBING

1. World's best selling cookie is the Oreo
2. The average kid eats 15 pounds of cereal each year
3. The game of Lacrosse is 600 years old
4. After a 3 week vacation, your IQ can drop as much as 205.
5. The most popular phobia is arachnophobia, the fear of spiders.

THIS WEEK IN SPORTS:

by Josh Ottensoser,
Boy's Sports Staff

- The Yankees have been struggling as of late, losing 6 of their 8 games. Additionally, Alex Rodriguez is being investigated for his involvement in the Biogenesis Corp. and his use of steroids. He may be banned from the MLB for life.
- New Nets, Paul Pierce, Kevin Garnett, and Jason Terry were introduced this week.
- Ex Miami Heat sharp shooter, Mike Miller, signed with his other former team, the Memphis Grizzlies.
- A Tennessee Titans rookie, Jonathan Willard, saved a family of four and their dog from a burning car after practice this week.

WHAT AM I?

I run over fields and woods all day. Under the bed at night I sit not alone. My tongue hangs out, up and to the rear, awaiting to be filled in the morning. What am I?

I am weightless, but you can see me. Put me in a bucket, and I'll make it lighter. What am I?

Pronounced as one letter and written with three, two letters there are, and two only in me. I'm double, I'm single, I'm black, blue, and gray. I'm read from both ends, and the same either way. What am I?

I am small as an ant and big as a whale, I can soar through the air like a bird with a tail. I can be seen by day and not by night, I can be seen with a big flash of light. I follow whoever controls me by the sun, but I fade away when dark fell like a ton. What am I?

BRAIN TEASERS

RAIN

it takes six men one hour to dig a hole.
does it take one man to dig half a hole?

Two men play five complete games of checkers. Each man wins the same number of games. There are no ties. How?

a seventeen sheep. All but nine of them does he have left?

How many seconds are in a year?

What five letter word becomes shorter when you add two letters to it?

1 H. on a U.

21 = Number of D. on a D.

$64 = \text{Number of D. on a D.}$
 $5 = \text{Number of S. on a C. B.}$
 $= \text{Num}$

5 = Number of S. on a C. B.
 8 = Number of D. in a Z. C.
 26 =

18 = Number of H. on a G. C.
 26 L. of the A

26 L. of the A.

EXAMPLE:

Answer = man overboard

i cycle

cycle
cycle

abababababababababababa

THINK

NIGHT ACTIVITY SCHEDULE

WEEK 5: July 28 - August 3

	SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	M. SHABBAT
Nitzi Girls	GET TIGHT ON DANCE FLOOR	PJ Party Movie & More (Canteen)	let's Make a Deal w/Yachad	arts 'n crafts (Art Room)	MAKE YOUR OWN PIZZA	Girls Campus Dance Off
Nitzi Boys		OVERNIGHT		FIFA	BMP	3 ON 3
YS Girls		POOL PARTY	TALENT SHOW (Pargod)	Camp out	COUNSELOR MAKEOVER & PIKE CANTEN (Canteen)	Girls Campus Dance Off
YS Boys		NIGHT LEAGUES	Balloon Pop (Pargod)	FIFA	karaoke	3 ON 3
OS Girls		MAKE YOUR OWN PIZZA & COUNSELOR MAKEOVER	BINGO & Canteen	POOL PARTY	CAPTURE THE COUNSELORS & RAINBOW TAG	Girls Campus Got Talent
OS Boys		ULTIMATE LINE-UP (Boys courts)		FIFA	Chulent Making Contest	3 ON 3
Ilanot Girls		SUPER SURPRISE!!! (Mercazia)	MINUTE TO WIN IT (Mercazia)	MAKE YOUR OWN PIZZA & TRIP TO WALMART	CAPTURE/ EXTREME COUNSELOR MAKEOVER	Girls Campus Dance Off
Ilanot Boys				FIFA	POOL PARTY	3 ON 3
Manhigot		POOL PARTY	last Team Standing (Boys Gym)	Sushi Making w/GBMP	Don't forget the Lyrics (Pargod)	Girls Campus Dance Off
Manhigim		CHIP + WICH (9PM Baking Room)		FIFA		3 ON 3
Alufot		HASC CARNIVAL	SHALOM	POOL PARTY	Walmart	Girls Campus Dance Off
Alufim		WHAT'S UP?		FIFA		3 ON 3
Yachad		DRIVE IN MOVIE (Girls RC Wall)	let's Make a Deal w/Nitzi's	Hot Canteen	ARMY NIGHT	Layla Tor!

Staff Night Activities

July 27-August 2

Motzei Shabbat

MO-rasha Cup
9:15 pm : Boys Courts

Night @ the Tony's -for Girls Campus
9:30 pm : Mercazia

SNL -Special Guest -Rabbi Jesse Horn
11:45 pm : Baking Room (Please note, new time!!)

Sunday

Get Hypnotized
After dinner : Mercazia

2nd Annual Jr.Staff vs. Sr. Staff Female Kickball Game
9:45 pm : Girls Fields

R' Shmuel Hain:The Most Interesting Man in Tanakh: Snapshots of David HaMelekh
10:30 pm: Bondi 3/4

Monday

Jr. Staff Ceramics #2
2 shifts: 9:00 pm-9:30 pm
9:30 pm-10:00 pm

R' Mordehai Willig-"Reflections of Great Leaders:Their successes and failures"
10:30 pm : Bondi 3/4

Tuesday

Dance w/Jessie -All Female Staff is invited
9:45 pm : Pavilion

Special Staff Shiur-Medical Ethics -Dr. Deena Zimmerman
10:30 pm : Bondi 3/4

Wednesday

Israeli Kumzitz & Smores w/Ariel Cohen
9:30 pm /Fireworks Site

R'Yitzchak Cohen-Sichat Mussar
10:30 pm : Bondi 3/4

Thursday

Staff Karaoke
9:45 pm : Canteen

Taharat Mishpacha-Dr. Zimmerman (Sr. Female Staff Only)
9 pm Library

R' Moshe Tzvi Weinberg-"Nesivos Shalom: Chassidic Advice for Each and Every Jew"
10:30 pm Bondi 3/4

Friday-Shabbat -"Shabbat for Sara" (See Shabbat Shiur Schedule)