FOR NEW CAMPERS: REFERRED TO CAMP MORASHA BY _____

I WOULD LIKE TO MAKE THE FOLLOWING CONTRIBUTION TO THE CAMP MORASHA SCHOLARSHIP FUND: $ _____
 Every summer, we have dozens of campers who, without our scholarship fund, would otherwise be unable to attend camp. Your generosity will enable more campers to benefit from the transformative Morasha experience. Kindly add your donation to your tuition deposit. All contributions are tax-deductible.

All medication bills must be submitted to your healthcare plan; whatever is not will be paid by our secondary health plan. Make sure to send a photocopy of your Insurance Pharmacy card. If a copy of your Pharmacy card, medical form, or payment is not received in our office by May 15, you will not receive your bus boarding card and bunk assignment. We reserve the right to search camper's property for cell phones or any other items that are not permitted in camp. Campers are not permitted to mark, deface or damage camp property. Should my child mark, deface or damage any camp property or any camper's property, I agree to pay an assessment fee of no less than $50 and up to $500 should the damage warrant. I also authorize the camp to take my child out of camp on canoe and supervised trips and activities and to photograph and video my child, alone or in groups, which photographs may be used for promotional literature. In the event of cancellation, or if a camper is sent home due to behavior, health or any other issues, the camp is not obligated to give a refund. I understand that Camp Morasha, while it will take all reasonable precaution to eliminate the risk of loss or damage to camper's personal property, is not to be held financially responsible if such loss or damage should occur. In case of medical emergency, I hereby authorize the Camp Director or the physician selected by him to order whatever medical or surgical treatment he deems necessary for my child.
