Summer 2016 Highlights

Camp Morasha 2016 started off strong with a Purim in July silent DJ chagiga! Everyone looked great in their costumes while dancing the night away. Not even a week in, we had our first trip of the summer to Hershey Park, which was a blast! To end the jam-packed week, we had the moment everyone had been waiting for- the Morasha Runs B'Simcha marathon and carnival! With Shiria approaching, we spent all week practicing and getting those harmonies just right. Both teams were great, but the girls came through and won for the second year in a row! Visiting day came and passed, and before we knew it Olympics was here; the ambassadors had been named and the sports had already begun. Every year we have a stomp, but this year was the first ever glow in the dark stomp. Every bunk used their creativity to dress up in different themes to take memorable bunk pictures. On Saturday night, you could smell everyone's personal pizzas being baked in the dining room. We were all counting down the days until Inter camps where we could all see and catch up with our friends. The Nine Days and Tisha B'Av flew by just like the helicopter, which broke out the long anticipated color war. It's been a great few days of color war but we can't wait to reunite with all our friends. We're so excited to see what's in store for the last few days!

Camp Morasha Shalhevet

Team Horim - Purple

Camp Morasha 2016 was a blast! The first week we had Purim in July and a trip to Hershey Park. Then we ran B'simcha on Friday. The second week we had its about time, decade vs decade. We ended the week with Shiria and the girls won! The following Sunday we welcomed all our families and then kicked off the eleventh annual Olympic games. The next week we took a camp wide trip to the movies to see Finding Dory. Then we had the first annual glow in the dark stomp where the Alufot took first place. Week number five we said goodbye to old friends and hello to new friends. Second trip day was a blast! The Older Shtili girls went to Camel Beach Resort where we got to use the indoor water park and outdoor water park the next day. Girls campus bunk wars was a hit and inter camps was a smash. Color war break out was one to remember and we can't wait to see who wins! Good luck others teams and GO PURPLE!!!!

Happy Highlights of Camp Morasha 2016:

By: Hannah Goldenberg

Looking back on summer 2016 we had a blast!!! We were greeted with big warm smiles by our division heads and counselors! We enjoyed a competitive game of Panopoly then a silent DJ on Purim in July. After we had a blast while our stomachs flipped at Hershey Park! We had a marathon for Camp Simcha then we went back in time for It's About Time. Congrats to the 1980s team! Then the girls and boys battled it out in Shiriah. Later in the week we welcomed our parents and families on visiting day. Right when they left we went straight into Olympics! We had so much fun seeing our friends on Yom Nate. Yom Yisrael was so meaningful thanks to Ariel Cohen and the entire Mishlachat! All of our trips were fantastically awesome. Thank you to everyone who made this summer in camp so great!

Q: What do you call cheese that's not yours?

A: Nacho cheese!

Q: Where do pencils go for vacation?

A: Pencil-vania.
