THIS PAST WEEK AT CAMP MORASHA

What a week at Camp Morasha!

On Monday, we gathered in the camp's vast venue, the magnificent Mercazia, for rousing and inspiring opening night festivities. We danced (in several dance styles including hora, mosh-pit and Gangnam Style), sang (at the top of our lungs, or at least at the midpoint of our lungs) and cheered (but without pom-poms) for what hopefully will be another magical and memorable summer at Morasha! We also met our phenomenal and uber-talented division heads and other dynamic members of the Morasha team. And, of course, we were introduced to this summer's all-important theme: A Camp of Kavod. So, to stay on theme, let's all give a Kol Ha-Kavod shout-out to everyone who made opening night such a superb success!!!

CAMP MORASHA

On Tuesday, camp was in full swing as we embarked on our first fantastic day of awesome activities. From athletics to arts and everything in between, we got our first full taste of what this Morasha summer has to offer. And believe it or not, there also were a few new jaw-dropping wrinkles that blew minds and fulfilled dreams including drone piloting (how cool is that!) and Morasha's brand new Aquapark! So now Morasha is officially a camp "by land, sea and air."

On Wednesday, the good times kept rolling as we continued our rockin' regularly-scheduled programming. The camp was brimming with energy and oozing with electricity like rock-climbing, fishing, horseback riding, and a variety of sports including basketball, hockey, volleyball and tennis. The day culminated with an exciting and hilarious hypnotist show that had all of us laughing, whether under a trance or not.

On Thursday, we celebrated 4th of July with an unbelievable fireworks show that lit up the dark sky with colorful and awesome displays. While the fireworks certainly were explosive (literally and figuratively) so was the outstanding performance delivered by the legendary crooner Mordechai Shapiro, who belted out his classic hits and some beautiful new tunes too. Truly a night to remember! The whole night was in celebration of Yachad's 20th year at Camp Morasha.

After such a rollercoaster week of non-stop fun and excitement, surely we all can use a day of rest. We are really looking forward to our first Shabbos together and we wish everyone a Shabbat Shalom!

SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS AT

CAMP MORASHA

On Wednesday, July 3, the Morasha girls softball team played against Westmont Camp. The game was off to a great start when Morasha scored 8 runs by the bottom of the second. Maayan Gellis and Emma Kinches from Older Shtili Girls were key players in the field, and they helped the team get quick outs when they were in the field. Dina Rubin pitched for most of the game, and she did an amazing job. The whole team batted very well, and they were able to score a total of 17 runs to win the game!
