UNIQUE SHABBATGRAM PROJECT COMBINES TZEDAKAH AND CHESED

SHABBATGRAMS - a unique project combining Tzedakah and Chesed- is fast gaining popularity on Girls' Campus in and around Morasha.

A take-off on telegrams, Shabbatgrams, under the direction of Sara Lichner, a mother's helper, and her committee, is a means of sending Shabbat greetings to friends (gemilas chesed) with the proceeds- 10¢ for one/ three for a quarter- going to Tzedakah.

The committee offers the blanks for use on Thursday nights, picks up the filled out messages on Friday, and delivers them to the addressees during the Friday night meal. The forms are artistically decorated with a Shabbat theme.

In the three weeks since the project has been initiated almost $ 175 has been raised to be sent to Yeshivot in Eretz Israel.

Many extra messages are expected to be sent this week to bid L'hitroat to our campers.

If you would like to volunteer to assist with this project, contact Sara in Bunk 3A Rear.

ANNUAL VISITORS DAY SET FOR SUNDAY

Visitors from near and far are expected at Morasha this Sunday for the annual once-a-summer ritual.

According to Rabbi Mordecai Besser, Program Director, the usual music and dance presentation will not take place this year in deference to the Three Weeks (Unless Moshiach comes before).

Gates will open at 10AM camp time. Visits with counselors will be at 11 and with teachers at 12. Farewell is 4 PM. 2.

ILANOT PRESENT " MY FAIR LADY"

Under the direction of Ricki Zibitt, Head of the Dramatics Department at Morasha, Ilanot presented " My Fair Lady" Wednesday and Thursday nights in the Mercazia.

David Sanders starred as Henry Higgins along with Randi Sorscher as Eliza Doolittle. Alisa Glanz played Mrs. Higgins. Rena Pollock and Zew Rosenzweig were the Hills and Josh Epstein was cast as Colonel Pickering.

More than thirty other Ilanot participated in supportive roles.

Music was directed by Sandy Sudberg and choreography by Shayne Schwed. Stewie Greenberg and Robert Fagin handled lights and sound, and Rena Davis did curtains and prompting. Costumes and scenes were designed by Suzie Pfeifer, Amy Zlotnick, Miriam Baumel, Jeremy Dauber, Binyamin Resnick, Rena Hain, and Eli Shostak.

ALUFOT DANCE, SING, MAKE FRIENDS AT BLOCK VACATION CENTER

By Meredith Deutsch, G 15

Alufot danced, sang, and made new friends last week at the Block Vacation Center for Senior Citizens. Under the direction of Shayne Schwed, 24 girls performed the dance to " Layla B'kahir ". The girls sang three songs from Shiriah.

To add to the spirit, Sarah Rosenberg, G 15, gave a d'var Torah on Parshat Pinchas.

After performing, the girls danced to the Block Dance Pavillion and were taught dances by Shirley, the dance teacher.

When we boarded the buses, we were commended over and over again for the wonderful job we did. Everyone who participated in the program gained from it. Debra Staimen felt that it was an "inspirational experience." We realized how fortunate we are, to grow up in a religious environment.

TORAH THOUGHTS

OUR FACULTY WRITES . . .

THE TWO REALITIES

By Rabbi Yitzchak Twersky

Two realities: you decide between them. Reality number one: Man's mission is to fulfill Hashem's will at the expense of all that he has and is, including his very life. Serving Hashem is first and last and everything in between. Reality number two: Hashem commands man not to serve Hashem, but rather to fulfill himself. Hashem neither needs nor demands anything from us- only for us.

Reality number one: Moshe Rabenu knows that he will die- but only after fulfilling Hashem's will and avenging the debacle with Midyan. Moshe is given no specific time when he must comply. He is merely told to do it- and then die. Selfish interests- even legitimate ones- dictate that Moshe procrastinate. "Why put off for tomorrow what you can put off for the day after tomorrow" certainly applies to dying. Self sacrifice, even self-denial, prompts Moshe to fulfill Hashem's mandate- promptly, even immediately. Hashem's will is done; Moshe pays the ultimate price.

Reality number two: The greatest of all Jewish leaders has only one piece of unfinished business. Only one crisis was not handled by Moshe personally- that of Midyan. Moshe was always there for the Jewish people - save once. So reads the record. Hashem's verdict is that Moshe must have an opportunity to correct that one lapse before he dies. Moshe is given that opportunity by Hashem to complete himself, and his record, as leader. Moshe the great Jewish leader dies fulfilled. Other challenges will face the next leader, but all the scores from his watch are settled. It is Hashem's gift to Moshe.

Ultimately, man lives on the interface of these two realities.

A D'VAR TORAH . . .

ON PARSHAT MAASEI

By Raphael Willig, H.S. Kolliel

In the beginning of Parshat Maasei the Torah lists all the places that B'nei Yisroel travelled through in their forty years of travelling in the Midbar. The Torah lists forty-two places at which Bnei Yisroel camped. Rashi explains that the Torah listed all these places to show the kindness of Hashem. Even though Hashem kept B'nei Yisroel wandering in the Midbar for forty years, Hashem lessened the hardships that such wanderings usually entail.

In this Parsha we find another indication of the kindness of Hashem towards B'nai Yisroel. The Midrash says that at the time of Moshiach, Hashem will take B'nei Yisroel back to Eretz Yisroel through these same forty-two places listed in the Parsha.

During the Three Weeks, and especially the Nine Days, we should all be more cognizant of Hashem's love and care for all of B'nai Yisroel.

Even though Hashem sometimes punishes B'nai Yisroel, whatever he does is for our own good. We must learn the lesson of Parshat Masei and realize that what Hashem does is always meant for our benefit.

NINE DAYS OF AV BEGIN WEDNESDAY

Rosh Chodesh Av, this coming Tuesday night/ Wednesday marks the beginning of the saddest period of the Jewish calendar year, The Nine Days. The Mishna tells us that once Av begins, joy and happiness is to be lessened. Our activities take a more serious nature. We do not listen to music, do laundry, swim for pleasure, or eat meat (unless we are fortunate enough to attend a Siyum.)

עמוד עברי

רוץ אומר או קתבה:
..בובילה - תודה רבהו"

רוח כופסת נרנשת
את השנים קנרשת

פתח -בוקר קיללו
הקונצרט, הוי הקמלקל.

רוץ ו..בוב" שוקעים קשקס -
רוחי שרה (גם צוקסת).

כוסות הפלא

לפניכם שש כוסות. שלש מהן מלאות ושלוש ריקות.
ייתם הקסם יודע איך לסדר את הכוסות כך, שבהחלפה
אחת יהיה הסדור: כוס מלאה, כוס ריקה, כוס מלאה,
כוס ריקה וכן הלאה.
האם גם אתם יכולים?

טוב לצחוק ריקנות כואבת

"אמא, אמרה רוחי, "הבטן שלי כואבת."
"הבטן כואבת לך כי היא ריקה," אמרה אמא,
תאכלי, היא לא תכאב."
בערב בא שכן לבקור והתאונן שראשו כואב
קפצה רוחי ואמרה:
"אם כואב לך הראש - סימן שהוא ריק..."

התפריט לא מתאים

איש אחד נכנס למסעדה ואמר למלצר: "הבא לי
אכל, אני רעב כמו כלב."
השיב לו המלצר בנימוס: "מצטער, אדוני, אין
עצמות."

SPORTS

(Special to SHALHEVET by Sports Reporter ERIC MELZER)

STAFF HOCKEY TEAM BEATS HASC

In Staff Hockey: Morasha 6 - HASC 3. This was the debut of what might be Morasha's best hockey team in a while. The waiters put in an extremely solid performance as they scored 5 of the 6 goals.

Dov Borgen and Shlomo Schwarzshtein each contributed two and Flatbush star Andy Lanter put in one.

Waterfront's Moshe Adler also scored a goal while playing offense for the first time ever. O.T.I. and F.O.Y. star Kenny Schiff, a.k.a. "the Wall" played as his nickname shows.

COMING UP

Morasha is invited to a basketball tourney at Hillel on August 2.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL RUNS EXCITING SEASON

Intramural Basketball has been running very smoothly according to reports from the Morasha Sports Staff. Certain games have been extremely exciting. Such a game was Monday night's game between the Blue Devils and Machon.

The highly favored Machon, otherwise known as the Yellow Jackets were down four at the half, and the Blue Devils didn't let up. With one minute left, Machon was down by 7. But four turnovers and a buzzer shot by Binyamin Resnick sent the game into overtime.

As curfew approached, the game went into double overtime. With four seconds remaining Captain Noam Cohen (17 points) canned an 18 footer to win it and break Machon's undefeated streak.

The Blue Devils were also led with an outstanding 26 point performance by Dov Goldman. Israel Wallach led Machon with 18 points.
