Week 4 was golden...

Week 4 kicked off a week full of energy, music and competition! Monday we enjoyed Virtual Visiting day, campers spoke to their parents, enjoyed a carnival and topped it off with a Mordechai Shapiro concert! Shoutout to Netanel Katz, AKA Simcha on Wheels, for introducing Mordechai Shapiro and "taking over" Virtual Visiting Day.

Tuesday night we welcomed our 15th annual Morasha Olympics. Athletes huddled to receive their bandanas and find out what countries they would represent for the next two days of competition. Athletes were led to the Coliseum by the Olympic torch held by Atara and Dave. After the anticipation of hearing our ambassadors we had a surprise paint party!!

Rabbi Rothwachs introduced the theme "It Takes a Village" and spoke about sportsmanship and the importance of middot in sports. Rabbi Rothwachs helped frame our mindset as we went for the gold. The competition was fierce as we welcomed our team activities, ran the marathon and showed off our skills and strength. Thursday, athletes competed for the Gold medals and ended the day with a surprise trip to the American Dream Mall! Campers were thrilled at the site of the Nickelodeon Amusement Park and enjoyed the thrills, rides and Chickies dinner. Closing medal Ceremonies took place on stage in the amusement park. Congratulations to Barbados for winning Olympics!

We are excited for a restful Shabbat Nachamu and we are looking forward to Week 5!

Parsha Thoughts... By Ilan Frankel

"If I was wealthier I would be giving, if I was better looking I would be happy." Rebbe Nachman M'Breslov attacks this attitude especially in the context of following in the ways of the Torah. Many make the mistake saying that due to their difficult surroundings they cannot stay true to the values of Torah. Rebbe Nachman explains that where you are is exactly where God wants you to be, He expects and believes in you to serve him from that exact context. (פרשת ואתחנן) "ובקשתם משם את ה' אלקיך ומצאת" "From there you will seek Hashem, your God, and you will find Him". Rebbe Nachman says the focus in this פסוק is "משם", "from there." Wherever you find yourself, from there you seek Hashem. The Piacezna Rebbe in Parshat Yitro quotes Rav Aharon M'Karlin (The Beis Aharon) on another part of this week parsha: "זואהבת את ה' אלקיך בכל לבבך ובכל נפשך ובכל מאדך" The Beis Aharon explains based on the words בכל לבבך that ones heart should not serve God based on the place they are in. We must be all in no matter where we are. Don't say "here I can serve God here I can't." The Piacezna Rebbe says that to emphasize this idea, Hashem gave us the Torah in the desert and not in Israel so that one can't say I can serve God in this holy and special place (Israel), but outside I can't have the same commitment. Hashem didn't give us the Torah in a specific location, he gave it to us while we were on the way in the desert. Since the Torah was given in no place that means that we are not stuck to a coordinate or situation, everyplace is our place for Torah. No matter the challenge at hand, we are expected to and must stay true to the Torah's values משם."
