Next Stop: Morasha 2022

304 Days and Counting!

Week 7 was a fakeout...

This week at Camp Morasha we truly believed it was Color War breakout. Not once, but twice we were fooled! Time is running out, maybe there will be no Color War breakout for the summer of 2021! Vnaphochu Hu! Sunday we woke up and had different division heads! The boy and girl division heads switched places for the day. They went to activities with campers on opposite campuses. The day continued with a Purim Seudah and we enjoyed eating hamentashen in August. Purim concluded with a Joey Newcomb Chagiga! Everyone came dressed up, sang and danced the night away! We were convinced it was Color War breakout and were completely shocked at the fakeout shpiel.

The fun continued with Sundaes on Mondays, Girls 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament, divisional game shows, nitzi lip sync battles and so much more. We concluded the week at the anticipated Performing Arts event of the summer. Thursday night we were greeted by Disney cast members as we entered the Mercazia for "Go the Distance: A Disney Cabaret". Belle Shatzkes wrote the first-ever original Camp Morasha production about a family trip to Disney World. The audience enjoyed singing along to familiar Disney tunes with a new plotline. Congratulations to Belle Shatzkes, Sally Shatzkes and the amazing cast and crew for all of their hard work and efforts on this production. But that is not all! After the final bows, we were shocked to hear about Jeremy Jozsef's new position as Director of Wayne County camps and were fooled again by this fakeout breakout. Thank you Jeremy Jozsef for the 10 years of dedication and hard work and we look forward to many more years of your leadership.

We are sad that our last full week of camp is over and we are looking forward to soaking up the last few days of camp 2021!

Parsha Thoughts...Orelle Shacarchi

Shabbat Shalom! In the words of Rabbi Goldsmith, In this week's Parsha, the Torah discusses different leadership roles. One lesson of leadership can be found in the commandment of the king to write a Sefer Torah and "והיה עמו" - it must be with him. The king must carry the Torah with him wherever he goes in order to remind himself what he values. If the king learns the Torah in depth and truly makes it a part of his kingship, he will exemplify Torah values. Once the king reaches that level - his every day actions are infused with meaning. He'll have the ability to inspire everyone around him. Yes - this is true about a king who inherently has great influence over his nation, but also about us, the people of the nation. We all can be a walking example of what it means to be living a Torah life. We have the power to be Or LaGoim, but also be an example for Klal Israel. All we have to do is act with our Torah values of Derech Eretz. There are so many opportunities to grow in Camp Morasha. We can all look for role models throughout camp and learn from their positive actions, while also being role models for each other. Have an amazing Shabbos!

Spotlight on new Senior Staff... Cara Biem

Q: What do you do during the year?

A: I teach toddlers at Katz Hillel Yeshiva in Boca Raton, Florida

Q: Why did you decide to come to Camp Morasha this summer?

A: I have always enjoyed working in camp, I have always heard how special the Morasha family is and I wanted to be a part of it.

Q: What is the best part of day camp?

A: I love that I am helping these kids feel the Morasha magic. The Morasha Day Camp is giving kids a taste of the Morasha Programming. I love seeing how excited they are to participate in all of the activities and experience new things.

Q: Can you share a day camp memory from this summer?

A: One of my favorite memories from this summer, was the bowling trip. We had to keep manual score and had to create our own scoring system. Let's just say day camp always wins. ;)

Q: What is your favorite camp food?

A: French toast on Friday mornings

Q: What was your favorite event this summer?

A: Joey Newcomb/Purim in August chagiga

Q: What is something people do not know about you?

A: I have 2 dogs
