Morasha
Open!

Week six we enjoyed completing art projects, leagues, divisional trips and so much more! Sunday, we were thrilled to welcome our parents, siblings and even some pets! Morasha families loved spending time with their campers and participated in camp activities and a concert with Duvie Shapiro and Dovid Pearlman. We were sad to say goodbye to our visitors but were pumped for the week ahead! The fun continued with our "Concert of the Summer" featuring Mordechai Shapiro! This concert spotlighted the sixty years of Camp Morasha through song. In addition to dancing to Mordechai Shapiro original songs, Mordy included some Morasha shirya favorites for everyone to sing together! On Tuesday, we welcomed our newest members of the Morasha family: Morasha Mania!

Our newest members of the Morasha family, Morasha Mania, spent three days immersed in all of the activities Morasha has to offer. From sports to pool parties, rock climbing to horseback riding -- and so much more, they were able to taste the magic of camp!

On Thursday, every camper was treated to their divisional trip. Nitzis and Shtilis headed to Camelbeach. The Ilanot enjoyed their two-day overnight trip to Lake George while the Manhigim/got rocked their two-day NYC Bash. And finally, Alufim and Alufot coasted through Road Trip from Sunday night through Thursday night!

We concluded the week celebrating our home away from home Eretz Yisrael with a shuk and look forward to a special Israel@75 celebration on Motzei Shabbat. As always we look forward to a restful Shabbat at Camp Morasha!

Parsha Thoughts...by Gavriel Katz (B19)

Time and again we find Mitzvot which are mentioned more than once. In fact if Hashem had mentioned each of the Mitzvot only once, the Torah would be far shorter. What we find is that every time a Mitzvah is repeated, the presentation is slightly different. There is what we call a 'Chiddush' – Something new. Something fresh to add a new dimension to the performance of that Mitzvah. A fine example of this is in the first two paragraphs of the Shema. In Parshat Va'etchanan we read the first and in the following week's Parsha, Parshat Eikev we read the second. We find that in these two Parshiot, various Mitzvot are repeated: to love Hashem, to study and to teach Torah, to wear Tefillin and the Mitzvah of Mezuzah. The chief Rabbi states that you will notice that there is a significant difference. The first paragraph of the Shema is in the singular. "V'Ahavta – You in your own personal capacity should love Hashem." "B'Shivtecha B'Veitecha – When you are in your home you should be studying and teaching Torah." "Al Mezuzot Beitecha – Upon the doorposts of your house you should have a Mezuzah." These same Mitzvot in the second paragraph of the Shema however, are all in the plural. The message is that we have a dual responsibility.
